

Baby needs Bach

If you are looking for a way to enrich a child's early experience, you could not do better than the music of Johann Sebastian Bach. Even in a simple Prelude or Minuet — such as this devoted family man wrote for his children — Bach sets forth the beauty of logic and order on many levels. Rich in faith, hope and love for one's fellow man, Bach's beautiful melodies offer reassurance and comfort to young and old.

Baby Needs Bach's 21 all-instrumental tracks include favorites such as Air on the G String; Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring; Sheep May Safely Graze; Preludes from the Well-Tempered Clavier and Minuets from the Anna Magdalena Bach Notebook; Adagios from the 2-violin Concerto and Keyboard Concerto No. 5; preludes and dances from keyboard, violin and cello suites.

Artists include the Moscow Chamber Orchestra under conductor Constantine Orbelian; guitarist Paul Galbraith; the Los Angeles Guitar Quartet; pianist Carol Rosenberger; flutist Eugenia Zukerman with the Shanghai String Quartet; oboist Allan Vogel with harpsichordist Patricia Mabee and gambist Mark Chatfield; cellist Tatiana Zavorskaya; violinists Pavel Bereslavtsev and Alexei Strelnikov.

© © 1999 DELOS INTERNATIONAL, INC.
2118 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 223, Santa Monica, CA 90403
Printed and Manufactured in the U.S.A.
www.delosmusic.com

J.S. BACH

*makes your toes tap
your heart sing
your spirit dance.*

ALSO *the little singer
in your nursery could use some accompaniment.*

*(If Bach helps later on
with the math homework
think of that as a bonus !)*

*JOHN STONE, M.D.
Cardiologist and Poet*

TOTAL PLAYING
TIME: 68:04

